

Division 02: Linguistic Studies

Training objectives: pedagogical, scientific, development-related objectives: This training aims to enable the student to master scientific research tools in the field of language and linguistics in all its branches and schools,

- Developing university studies in the field of linguistics in order to fulfill the needs of society and its institutions, and to raise awareness of the importance of language in preserving the identity of society and achieving national security,

The target competencies and the profile of the student's exit and occupations:

- Teaching the Arabic language,
- Activating linguistic trainings,
- Translation of documents,
- Designing training and lecture supports,
- Carrying out an in-depth documentary research on a topic,
- Presentation and oral presentation of a point of view well documented and substantiated by argument,
- Preparing written documents that are compatible with scientific publishing standards in Arabic,
- Developing or supporting scientific or educational projects.
- Acquiring a specialized linguistic culture and acquiring linguistic knowledge,
- Gaining experience in translation, proofreading, media and teaching,
- Mastering oral and written language, clarifying the cultural and aesthetic aspects of the cultural and intellectual heritage.
- Local and national employment possibilities, and areas of active participation in the professional community:
  - Directorates of education,
  - Directorates of Culture and its affiliated organizations,
  - National and regional research centers

-Media and publishing institutions.